

EDICT n. 004-2020

An edict to cease hostilities with the Holy Republic of Paragonia and conclude the Ungerecht War.

We, the Occidian Emperor, in exercise of Our constitutional prerogatives, establish:

ARTICLE 01

Considering the consent granted to me by the Council of Junkers and Our competences exposed at the article second of our Constitution, We declare the cease of hostilities with the Holy Republic of Paragonia, started on 22 February 2010 and known among our citizens as the Ungerecht War.

ARTICLE 02

Considering the progress achieved by us during this period of ten years and three hundred six days, striving to create a more acceptable parameter for resolutions of conflicts, recognizing the inadmissibility of using force or threatening in the resolution of all issues and being compromised the peaceful initiatives, proceeding from the universally recognised right of peoples, the principles of equality, voluntary and free expression of will and the security of peoples, expressing through the present Edict the will to protect unconditionally human rights and freedoms and those of the citizen, irrespective of origin, religious beliefs, place of residence or any other distinctions, and to prevent acts of violence against political opponents, we declare the end of the Ungerecht War.

ARTICLE 03

Considering the previous article, the hostilities are to cease on all fronts at 11:59 p.m. today.

ARTICLE 04

Considering the existence of the Empire of New Europe until 2013 and its continuity secured through its successor states, the North American Confederation from 2013 until 2020 and the Occidian Empire since 2020, and the verified inactivity of the Paragonian State, added the elements presented to us that the other belligerent part can be considered a failed state, We proclaim victory over the Holy Republic of Paragonia and state their dissolution.

Oscar

His Imperial Majesty, by the Grace of God and the People, Occidian Emperor.
