

EDICT n. 006-2021

An edict to create the Order of Norton.

We, the Occidian Emperor and King of Eniarku, in exercise of Our constitutional prerogatives, establish:

ARTICLE 01

The Order of Norton the First, also known as Order of Norton, is created as a dynastic order, the fifth in precedence after the Order of William, and before the Cross of Independence.

ARTICLE 02

The Order of Norton is reserved to the individuals that, through their actions and work, accomplished great deeds for micronationalism and for the entire micronational community.

ARTICLE 03

The Order of Norton is a single-class order, being granted the star and the ribbon bar for personal use.

ARTICLE 04

The Order of Norton can be bestowed to nationals and foreigners, and is not-hereditary.

ARTICLE 05

The Order will be bestowed by the Monarch, as Sovereign of the Order, to individuals at his pleasure, for their deeds.

ARTICLE 06

If the individual acts in any way contrary to the beliefs and values of the Occidian Empire, the Order of Norton can be revoked.

Oscar

His Imperial and Royal Majesty, by the Grace of God and the People, Occidian Emperor and King of Eniarku.
